A MESSAGE FROM DR. CHRISTOPHER DOANE, Dean, School of Music

On behalf of the School of Music and our students, faculty, and staff, it is my pleasure to welcome you to the events of the UofL School of Music's Jazz Week. The Jamey Aebersold Jazz Studies Program faculty has organized a terrific array of events and concerts that bring the eyes and ears of jazz fans throughout the region to the University of Louisville. A combination of concerts and master classes featuring established and emerging jazz artists provides opportunities for audiences to experience the past, present, and future of jazz in the United States and around the world.

The lineup of events and artists appearing during this special series of concerts is truly remarkable. The school is especially pleased to welcome to Louisville our special guests, the Jeff Hamilton Trio, and Antonio Hart. We also want to welcome back our special friend and music alumnus from Brasilia, Renato Vasconcellos.

We are pleased to be working with Renato and his university, the University of Brasilia, along with the music program at the State University of Campinas in Brazil and the College Conservatory of Music at the University of Cincinnati on a U.S. Department of Education grant that will provide opportunities over the next four years for jazz students from each country to study internationally for part of the academic year. These opportunities will continue the international emphasis that has been a part of our jazz program over the past several years.

The appearance and residency of Antonio Hart at this year's Jazz Week is made possible through the support of the Visiting Jazz Artist Residency endowment provided to the School of Music through the gifts of dozens of jazz music supporters and Kentucky's Bucks for Brains program. This important program has benefitted many academic areas of the University of Louisville and all of our Louisville region. The School of Music and our Jazz Studies Program are grateful to our supporters and the university for supporting this important endowment.

Finally, we thank our panel of adjudicators and clinicians who give such great service to the School of Music and Jazz Week through their work with our visiting high school jazz bands. In addition to the opportunity to showcase some of the finest jazz performers working today, these events are all about providing educational opportunities for our students at UofL, community members, and jazz students in our region. So, to all who contribute to this critically important part of this festival, please accept this acknowledgment and our thanks.

All our performers and teachers this year join a long list of previous Jazz Week artists who make up a veritable "who's who" in the contemporary jazz world. We're proud to offer Jazz Week as one of the major annual events in the musical life of the University and our community, recognizing the unique contribution of jazz to our culture, both locally and throughout the world.

We hope you enjoy your visit to the University of Louisville and all the events that are a part of Jazz Week 2011.
